MILAN HIGH SCHOOL NAMED LIFESMARTS STATE CHAMPIONS

NASHVILLE, TN, March 21, 1998 - High school students from across the state recently traveled to Nashville to participate in the "LifeSmarts...the Ultimate Consumer Challenge" competition.

Five high school teams competed for the state title and Milan High School from Milan, TN was declared the state champion. They were coached by: Linda Truex and Lisa Bradford, both teachers from Milan High School. Team members included Sabrina Peete, Michael Dodson, Jon Johnson, Jennifer Bell, and Tanna Scott.

These students will go on to compete in the regional & national competitions in Phoenix, AZ in April of this year. The team and their coach will be flown by Southwest Airlines to represent the state of Tennessee and their school as they compete for the national LifeSmarts title.

The Division of Consumer Affairs would like to thank Southwest Airlines, Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores and Central South Music Sales for their sponsorship and support of Tennessee's LifeSmarts program.
